According to Pretrial Services, Mr. Andrade has done very well on supervision. He has reported for drug testing as directed (all drug tests have returned negative), he has maintained a stable residence with his wife and children in Stockton, California, and he has maintained full-time employment. He was working at Sygma Network but found better employment with A. Trucking. He provided documentation in the form of his earnings statements.

On June 27, 2023, the defendant's treatment counselor notified Pretrial Services that he has been excelling at work and in his parental role, has sustained his sobriety, and has exhibited knowledge of his triggers by expertly navigating coping mechanisms. As such, the counselor recommended his treatment services be terminated/suspended with successful completion. On
